
Getting started

Posted by w001380 - 2009/04/05 16:17

It seems that there are many compnies out there trying to get our money. The more I look the more confused I get. I been reading the reviews for some of the compnies that promise that we will get rich in days and some of them seem to be only scams. I need some advice here and se if someone can share the experince.

=====

Re:Getting started

Posted by Luanne - 2009/04/06 13:56

Hi,

Yes, you are right. There are plenty of companies touting get rich quick schemes and can be considered "scammy." We do not promise riches, but only provide information on tax lien listings and educational webinars and books so that newcomers, such as yourself can learn about the industry without having to invest a lot of money.

Our webinars start at as little as $9.95. And our books are also inexpensive. We have a free trial, so basically all you need to know about tax liens and deed is right here. BUT you do need to proactively learn. That means doing research on your own county and reading up on the rules and laws.

Thanks,

Luanne
Admin

=====